

The Wild Hunt, Inc. Diversity & Inclusivity Policy

The Wild Hunt, Inc. is committed to fostering, cultivating and preserving a culture of diversity and inclusion.

Our contributors are the most valuable asset our organization has. The collective sum of the individual life experiences, knowledge, inventiveness, innovation, self-expression, unique capabilities and talent that our contributors invest in their work represents a significant part of not only our culture as an organization, but our reputation as well.

We embrace and support our contributors' diversity in ability, age, color, education, ethnicity, family or marital status, gender identity or expression, language, national origin, political affiliation, race, religion, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, veteran status, and other characteristics that make our contributors unique.

The Wild Hunt, Inc.'s diversity commitment applies to all areas of our work, including our practices and policies on contributor recruitment and selection, topics featured on the web site, representation at conferences, festivals, and events, and administrative tasks such as fundraising and grant writing. As a source of news and commentary for an often underrepresented and misrepresented community, The Wild Hunt, Inc. prioritizes providing a platform for the underrepresented voices within that community as a core commitment.
